ED UND FRENCH, New York, May 8, 18:

Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

James Guthrie. Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants Samuel Byington, and Richard Wallach,

THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause states, that the said complainant, on or about the the act of 18th of March, 1818, showing the rank and line in which each served. agreeing to supply the government with five mil-lion of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of Jan uary, A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of our thousand dollars.

The bill further states that the said Strong, or or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock assigned their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract.

The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defend ants, or their representatives, and the defend-ants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hus dred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representatives, and such other and further decree as to this country, liaving travelled here while he fore tale of Lord Morpeth, and his work will be read in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in Albany as aforesaid beyond the reach of the prodred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the pro-

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint against the defendants, shall be taken for con-fessed against the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the prenises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Mon day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree a prayed for by the complainant should not be passed by the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six cessive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second Monday in May next.

Given at rules, the first Monday of January, 1855, being the first day of January, 1855. Test: JOHN A. SMITH, Clerk of the Circuit Court.

INVIGORATING CORDIAL, PURELY Vegetable in its composition. This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and Roots, which have been found after years of ex perience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence whilst it is presented to the public as an edica-cious remedy, it is also known to be of that char-acter on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency. Homorrhages Disordered Sterility, Menstruction, or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites. or for Debility arising from any cause such as veakness from sickness, where the patient has en confined to bed for some time, for female after confinement, abortion or miscarriage cordial cannot be excelled in its saintary effects or in loss of muscular energy, initability, hysica prostration, seminal weakness, pulpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness, &c., where a roxic medicine is required, it will be found equif not superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.—Henry's invigorating Cordent one of the most invaluable medicines in the aut cesses, and creates renewed health and happiness Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to re restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloo and to vigor. Young Men.—That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence of man, and it is the young who are complaints to which females are subject it sists nature to brace the whole system, chieck most ant to become its victims, from an ignorance of the danger to which they subject themselves Nervous Debility, weakness of the system and premature decay. Many of you may now be suffering, misled as to the cause of source of decays. To those, then who by excess to your agent on themselves premature impotency, involvati scional emissions, weakness and shriveling the genital organs, nervous affection, or any other consequences of unrestricted indulgence of the sensural passions, occasioning the second of re-Marringe, lessening both mental and bothly a pacity hold!
